Exhibitions

EASY RIDER

THE MYTH OF THE MOTORBIKE AS ART

From 18 July

An exhibition about the magical world of the motorbike presents different riding styles through a display of historical models that have entered our collective imagination, and investigates the motorbike's anthropological meanings as "escape from the world", "freedom" and "ride into the unknown". The esthetics of the motorcycle meets the world of higher culture, which is only apparently distant: literature, cinema, visual arts, photography. And also fashion, design, social culture.

GENIUS AND CRAFTSMANSHIP FURNITURE AND CABINET MAKERS AT THE COURT OF SAVOY BETWEEN THE 18TH AND 19TH CENTURIES

Until 15 July

From the secret collections and the Royal Residences. Two centuries of history of furniture in Piedmont in around 130 works: art pieces crafted by famous cabinet makers and sculptors of the time.

Brazil, 2005 © Sebastião Salgado/Amzonas Images/Contrasto

SEBASTIÃO SALGADO GENESIS

Until 16 September

The most recent work by the great documentary photographer Sebastião Salgado is a love song for the earth and an admonition to mankind: more than 200 images celebrate the rare beauty of our planet, the unique and precious heritage we all share.

THE FRAGILITY OF BEAUTY TITIAN, VAN DYCK, TWOMBLY AND OTHER 200 RESTORED MASTERPIECES

Until 16 September

Restitutions 2018. More than 200 masterpieces restored in the framework of the program to safeguard and promote the artistic heritage that Intesa Sanpaolo has sponsored for more than thirty years.

PRECIOUS INSTRUMENTS, DISTINGUISHED FIGURES MUSIC AND LUTHIERY BETWEEN THE 17TH AND 20TH CENTURIES IN EUROPE

Until 30 September
